

Vote for Dan Romeo for Hercules City Council.

Dan was voted on Council In June 2011 when the City was on the verge of bankruptcy. He understands what it takes to be fiscally responsible and helped Hercules rebound.

Dan has demonstrated throughout his nine years serving on the City Council including being a 3-time Mayor of Hercules that he has the background and experience to provide strong leadership. He understands economic development, city governance, safety issues and how to maintain the quality of life in Hercules.

Dan is ethical, hard-working, passionate, knowledgeable, and thoughtful leader. He seeks out new ideas and different perspectives, weighs the alternatives, considers possible outcomes, and develops reasonable positions. Dan is approachable and engages and genuinely committed to governing well. Dan acts in the best interest for the residents of Hercules. East Bay Times endorsed Dan 3 times.
