

Re-elect Dan Romero and Gerard Boulanger for Hercules City Council

They were elected in June 2011 to the Hercules Council when the City was on the verge of bankruptcy. They understand what it takes to be fiscally responsible and helped Hercules rebound. They have demonstrated that they have the background, experience, dedication, and skills to meet the needs of Hercules residents.

Dan has served nine years on the City Council including being a 3-time Mayor of Hercules. He is ethical, hard-working, passionate, knowledgeable and a thoughtful leader. East Bay Times endorsed Dan 3 times.

Gerard has served two terms on the City Council. He has focused on and contributed to responsible financial decisions to help stabilize the budget. He understands the various historical and present factors that have impact on the budget. He is knowledgeable and experienced.

Dan and Gerard have the experience and understanding of what it takes to serve on a local city council especially given the challenges of the City of Hercules. They have the ability and leadership skills to deal with economic development and city governance. They can provide leadership to help complete the projects they started.

Re-elect Dan Romero and Gerard Boulanger for Hercules City Council for continuation of leadership and quality of life in Hercules. They have acted in the best interest of the Hercules residents.

Vote for Dan Romero and Gerard Boulanger!
